

About the Games

Celebrate the gift of life at the largest gathering of transplant recipients in the world. The National Kidney Foundation (NKF) presents the 2010 NKF U.S. Transplant Games, July 30th—August 4th in Madison, Wisconsin.

The U.S. Transplant Games are a four-day Olympic-style event, hosted by the NKF since 1990. The purpose of the Games is to showcase the success of transplantation, call attention to the life-saving importance of organ donation, and recognize the contribution of the more than 5,000 families who donate the organs and tissues of loved ones each year.

Who Can Attend?

There's something for everyone, no matter your age, transplant recipients, donor family members, living donors and your friends and family. You don't need to be an accomplished athlete to participate; the U.S. Transplant Games are much more than a competition. The Games serve as testimony to the gift of life, both for those who have given and for those who have received.

Living donors and donor family members may take part in recognition ceremonies and education seminars. By participating in the spirit of the Games, you will get to know transplant recipients and other donors and donor families.
