The National Kidney Foundation's Council of Nephrology Social Workers (CNSW) is hosting a free community Webinar on the use of the KDAQOL 36 (Kidney Disease Quality of Life survey) with dialysis patients. The Webinar will include an overview on how to use the survey, resources currently available or in development, and practical experiences from the field. Participants will have an opportunity to ask questions of a panel of experts and renal professionals familiar with the survey. To submit questions in advance, please email teri.browne@gmail.com
